2. Target Market

The information below summarises the overall class of consumers that fall within the target market for the Prepaid Card, based on the product key attributes and the objectives, financial situation and needs that it has been designed to meet.

(a) Class of consumers that fall within the target market

The Prepaid Card is for those who are resident in Australia or have a right to reside in Australia, who are:

- employed by, or volunteer for, a church or not for profit organisation whose purpose includes the advancement of the Christian religion, and
- is looking for a mechanism to make purchases related to:
 - their work or volunteering for their employer; or
 - that are otherwise Exempt Fringe Benefit payments, and
- their employer has an existing account with CCFS.

(b) Description of the Prepaid Card and its key attributes

The Prepaid Card is a reloadable Visa card.

The key attributes of the Prepaid Card are that:

- It enables a church or other eligible employer to pay exempt fringe benefits on behalf of a Religious Practitioner or employee of a Public Benevolent Institution onto the Prepaid Card. Amounts credited and stored on the Prepaid Card can be used for exempt fringe benefit purchases, including for living expenses, such as groceries, petrol, travel, utilities, council and water rates, entertainment, and clothing etc.
- The maximum amount held on the card can be up to $4,999.
- The Prepaid Card is unable to be used for cash withdrawals from ATMs or EFTPOS transactions.
- Cardholders can access their balance and transaction history online.
- It can be used to make contactless payments.
- Employers retain full ownership of the funds on the Prepaid Card and any unused funds are able to be returned to any other account of the employer. Reporting and transaction details can also be accessed by the employer for their accounting and business record keeping needs.

(c) Excluded class of consumers

The employer of the cardholder or the organisation the cardholder volunteers for must be a CCFS client to apply for a Prepaid Card. Other applications will not be accepted.

(d) Consistency between target market and Likely objectives, financial situation and needs

The Prepaid Card is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of customers in the target market as it provides a method to make purchases up to $4,999 as an exempt fringe benefit in lieu of salary or wages and does not permit cash to be withdrawn.

3. Distribution Conditions and Restrictions

(a) Distribution channels

The Prepaid Card is designed to be distributed directly by CCFS upon the acceptance of an application form that is available:

- on the CCFS website www.ccfssaustralia.org.au;
- from the CCFS client services team at info@ccfssaustralia.org.au; or
- from one of the CCFS Relationship Managers whose contact details are published on the CCFS website.

(b) Distribution conditions and restrictions

The Prepaid Card should only be distributed to an existing CCFS client, or a person who is employed by an existing CCFS client, who:

- is over 16 years of age and is an Australian resident or has rights to reside in Australia; and
- has been provided with a copy of the current Product Disclosure Statement, the CCFS Financial Services Guide and relevant application.

(c) Adequacy of distribution conditions and restrictions

The distribution channels and conditions that define the eligibility of applicants for the Prepaid Card ensure that the recipients of the card fall within the target market.
